Historical landmarks

THE OLD TOWN HALL

- This building is based on the Gothic town hall, first recorded in the year 1397.
- ❑ In 1537-39 it was rebuilt in the Renaissance style.
- ❑ Now it is home to the Regional Homeland Museum.

The house of „At the Black Eagle“

This house is one of the most important Renaissance townhouses. It was built for the Housek family from Adlersberk in 1564 by the Italian builder Balli.

Words „SALVA GUARDA“ (Honor Guard) means that the house was under the special protection of the ruler and could not be looted.

Today it is the site of a hotel, restaurant and private gallery.

Fortifications and Parklands

- The present perimeter of the fortified wall is around 1800 m. long.
- It's a nice place for a walk and has a view across to Dómský hill and the surrounding countryside.

The house „U Kalicha“

- ✘ The tower, a chalice-shaped dome, was built on the orders of Jan Mráz in the second half of the 16th century to make his house more visible.
- ✘ The councilors used to meet at the Chalice and it is said that they never left the tower until they had reached a conclusive decision.
- ✘ It might also be true that they used to meet there because it was a place where they could drink undisturbed.
- ✘ Nowadays the building of U Kalicha is home to the town council and the information centre.
