HEALTH AND BODY CARE

What do you do to keep fit? What else can you do?

That's a good question because I am really trying to keep fit. I go for a run every evening and I go to the gym at the weekends. My friend and I regularly play squash or go cycling, I mean if the weather is good. But it's not only about sports, is it? I think you also have to think about a healthy diet and lifestyle and that's a real trouble for me. I have to admit that I eat rather unhealthy food. I know I should eat more fruit and vegetables instead.
