Geography

The Czech Republic is a state located in Central Europe. It is bordered by Germany to the west, Poland to the north, Slovakia to the east and Austria to the south.

The capital is Prague with more than 1 million inhabitants.

Geography

- The Czech Republic has an area of about 78,000sq km. The country is divided into 3 regions: Bohemia, Silesia and Moravia. It has more than 10 million inhabitants.
- It has a temperate continental climate (hot summer and cold snowy winters).

Landscape

The landscape of the CR is varied.

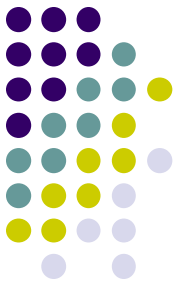

There are many mountain ranges in Bohemia – the Šumava range, the Ore mountains, the Jizerské mountains, the Giant mountains, the Eagle mountains. Jeseníky and Beskydy are the most important Moravian mountain ranges.

The highest mountain is Sněžka in the Giant mountains. It is 1602m high.

Rivers

- The longest river is the Vltava and the largest river is the Labe. Other important rivers are the Morava, the Sázava, The Odra,...
- The country is landlocked, it doesn't border the sea. The water flows to 3 different seas – the North Sea, Baltic Sea and Black Sea.

National symbols

- The national anthem is Kde domov můj (Where is my home)
- The flag has three national colours – blue, white and red.

National symbols

The coat of arms

4 parts – Czech lion with a double tail and Moravian and Silesian eagles.

Motto: Truth prevails (Pravda vítězí).

System of government

- The Czech Republic is a democratic state. The head of the state is the president. Our current president is Václav Klaus. There will be elections of new president next year (2013).

System of government

- The Czech parliament consists of two parts(chambers) – the Chamber of Deputies (with 200 members of parliament) and the Senate (with 81 senators).
- The head of the government is the Prime minister. Petr Nečas is our current Prime minister.

Industry and raw materials

- The most important raw material is coal and iron ore.
- The CR is an industrial country (the most important is the engineering sector).
