JANE EYRE 3 – WHILE WATCHING THE FILM, B2

1) Brainstorming. You have already watched the first part of the film Jane Eyre. What do you remember? Look at the expressions below and explain what or who they are and what is their role in the film.

Lowood	Mrs. Reed	Mr. Brocklehurst	Thornfield Hall	Helen Burns
Mrs. Fairfax	laugh	Miss Temple	Mr. Rochester

2) The plot. Take it in turns to retell the plot of the first part of the film in the class. Each pupil says one or maximum two sentences.

3) Watch the film Jane Eyre by Franco Zeffirelli, chapter 7 - 13 individually at home. Mark the following statements true or false. Correct the false ones.

- 1) Adele doesn't want Mr. Rochester to marry Miss Ingram, because they would send her away.
- 2) Mr. Rochester told Jane to come with Adele to the party with the Ingrams and other guests, which is difficult for Jane to believe.
- 3) At the party Miss Blanche Ingram offends Jane by saying that governesses are plain.
- 4) Mr. Rochester asks Jane to dance with him at the party.
- 5) Jane leaves the party because she feels exhausted and wants to go to sleep.
- 6) Another guest, Mr. Mason from Java, arrives to visit Mr. Rochester at Thornfield.
- 7) Jane is woken up at night by Mr. Mason, who asks her to help him, because he's badly hurt.
- 8) Jane's dying aunt wishes to see Jane once again and Jane decides not to ignore her wish.
- 9) Mr. Rochester is not happy to see Jane leaving but she promises to come back as soon as possible.
- 10) Mrs. Reed tells Jane her mind is troubled by two big wrongs she has made.
- 11) Mrs. Reed wants to reconcile with Jane.
- 12) Jane is away for a long time and both Mr. Rochester and Adele miss her.
- 13) After Jane's return at Thornfield Adele tells her she will be sent to a school in London.
- 14) Jane thinks Mr. Rochester is sending Adele away, because he's going to marry Miss Ingram.
- 15) Jane feels desperate that she would have to leave Thornfield Hall and especially Mr. Rochester.
- 16) Mr. Rochester surprises Jane by his proposal to marry him.

- 17) Mrs. Fairfax is trying to warn Jane not to marry Mr. Rochester, because she knows something that Jane does not.
- 18) Jane and Mr. Rochester can't get married, because Mr. Rochester is already married.
- 19) Mr. Rochester's wife, Bertha, is Mr. Mason's sister.
- 20) Bertha is insane and dangerous and Mr. Rochester was once tricked into marrying her.
- 21) When Jane learns the truth, she decides to stay at Thornfield and look after Bertha.
- 22) Bertha sets Thornfield on fire and kills Grace Poole on purpose.
- 23) John Eyre, Jane's uncle, whom she never met, died and left her his entire estate.
- 24) As Jane inherited all his estate, she has become a wealthy woman.
- 25) Jane decides to return to Thornfield, although she doesn't want to see Mr. Rochester any more.
- 26) Thornfield has been severely damaged by the big fire and Mr. Rochester has lost sight.
- 27) Jane is happy to see Mr. Rochester again, because she is deeply in love with him.
- 28) Mr. Rochester married Jane, they had children, Adele came to stay with them and eventually Mr. Rochester gained his sight again.

4) Vocabulary focus. Try to explain what the following expressions from exercise 2 mean. if you don't know them, look them up in a dictionary or ask your teacher for help.

offend somebody, be plain, feel exhausted, reconcile, feel desperate, be insane, kill somebody on purpose, estate, inherit, wealthy, gain sight

5) Answer the questions:

Did you like the way the film ended? Why?/Why not?

What is your opinion of Jane as a person? Try to characterize her personality in detail.

What's the nature of her relationship with Mr. Rochester? Why did they fall in love with each other?

Discuss the above mentioned questions in small groups.
