Answer key:

1)

a) Why did Oliver have to live in the workhouse, although he didn't like it there?

He was an orphan and had nobody to look after him.

b) Which film characters treated Oliver badly? Why?

Mrs. Sowerberry hated him, because she thought he was a burden who eats a lot. Noah Claypole wanted to show his superiority over Oliver. Bill Sykes, because he was selfish and full of hatred.

c) Were there any people, except for Mr. Brownlow, who were nice to Oliver? Give examples.

The old lady he met on his way to London who fed him and take him home when she found him exhausted. Nancy liked Oliver, because she saw herself when she was small in him, perhaps. Mrs. Bedwin, Mr. Brownlow's housekeeper, because she was a kind-hearted woman. The Artful Dodger helped Oliver to get from the street.

d) What was the nature of relationship between Oliver and Fagin?

It was a special relationship. On the one hand, Fagin taught Oliver how to pickpocket and used him in certain ways, on the other hand he probably partially substituted father to Oliver.

e) Why didn't Nancy want to betray Bill Sykes?

She was in love with him and wanted to stay true and faithful. She was strongly dependent on him.

f) What words would you use to describe Bill Sykes' personality?

Sykes is an evil character. He has no positive feelings, he's cruel and reckless. He behaves really selfishly most of the time and wants to use everyone in his own advantage.

g) Why did Mr. Brownlow look after Oliver and gave him education?

He thought there's goodness in Oliver. He didn't want him to become a criminal.

h) Why did Oliver want to visit Fagin in prison?

Because he pitied him. They didn't have such a bad relationship after all. Oliver wanted Fagin to pray with him, but Fagin wasn't capable of it or he wasn't willing to do so.

i) In your opinion, was Fagin a good or a bad character?

It's hard to say. As an old cunning criminal, he was a bad person who taught little boys how to steal, on the other hand, for some of the boys that was probably the only way how to survive.
