CANADA

Location

- Canada is the second largest country in the world. It is located in North America – south of the Arctic and north of the United States. The border between Canada and USA is the longest in the world at 8 891 km.
- Canada has one of the world's biggest islands - Baffin island, which is twice the size of the UK. The country also has two of the biggest lakes in the world – Great Bear Lake and Great Slave Lake.

Political system

- Kanata – meaning village or settlement- was the original name for the country. The french and british conquered the country and now Canada is both French and English speaking. Despite the amount of space, most of the 34 million people live close to US border where the climate is milder.
- Canada is made up of 14 federal states. It is a constitutional monarchy. The monarch of the UK is the official head of state, but has little influence on Canadian politics and is represented by the Governor General. The everyday running of the country is carried out by the prime minister and his cabinet.

Major cities

Ottawa is the capital city . Other important cities in Canada are Toronto, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Quebec. Toronto is known for its CN Tower, which used to be the highest tower in the world. Vancouver is famous for its outdoor sports and the 2010 winter Olympic games took place there. Montreal is mainly French - speaking city. Canada is a culturally interesting city (jazz festival, film festival).

Natural attraction

The most popular tourist attractions include the spectacular Niagara Falls and the Canadian Rockies (Rocky Mountains). The highest mountain is Mount Logan (6050 m) in St. Elias Mountains, Yukon.

Canada has huge pathways of land where you will find moose, grizzly bears, reindeer (caribou), beavers (national symbol) and wolves.

Economy

Canada has the second largest oil reserves in the world and is a leader in mining uranium.

Important products – agriculture – wheat, beef, cattle.

Fishing – cod, lobster, salmon

Manufacturing – motor vehicles, machinery, food products, wood, petroleum.

Canada is also famous for its 'Mounties' or mounted police. They wear a red uniform and ride on horseback.
