William Tell

Friedrich von
Schiller

Before you read...

Talk about Governor Gessler's hat.

- 1. Why is it important to the Austrian governor and his soldiers?
- 2. What do the Swiss people think about it?
- 3. Is the hat going to bring peace or problems to Switzerland?

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Later the same day, Gessler's two soldiers are standing in the street near the tree.
- Soldier 1: People aren't going to walk here.
- Soldier 2: They don't want to stop for a hat.
- Soldier 1: Perhaps they don't love the Emperor and his governor.
- Soldier 2: But it's only a hat! It's not on the Emperor's head. I don't want to make problems for people.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Soldier 1: But this is our job. Look! A man and a boy are coming. Let's watch them.
- William and Walther Tell come into the street. They are talking and they don't see the hat on the tree or the soldiers.
- Walther: Father, does every country have tall, beautiful mountains?
- Tell: No, son. Switzerland is famous for its mountains. We Swiss understand them – and I'm going to teach you.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Walther: Look, Father! Why is there a hat on that tree?
- Tell: I don't know, but it's not important. Let's go.
- Soldier 1: Stop! In the name of the Emperor of Austria, stop and look up at the hat.
- Tell: No. Why?
- Soldier 1: No questions. Come with us.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Tell: What are you talking about?
- Soldier 2: You´re coming with us – to prison.
- Tell: I don´t understand. What´s the problem here?
- Fuerst, Stauffacher and Von Melchtal arrive. People come into the street and watch.
- Fuerst: Stop! This man is from my family. What´s the problem?

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Soldier 2: He didn't stop for the hat. He doesn't love the Emperor.
- Von Melchtal: (to the people in the street) Friends, look at this! Do we want a hat on a tree in our streets? In this an emperor? (to the soldiers) You can't take William Tell away. He's a man of peace.
- Man: Don't take Tell!
- Woman: (quickly) The Governor is coming!

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Gessler arrives.
- Gessler: Is there a problem here?
- Soldier 1: Yes, Governor. This man and his son didn't stop for your hat. We're taking them to prison (quietly). But the people of the town are with him, not us.
- Tell: (to Gessler) Is the hat important? I'm sorry, Governor. But there's no problem. This afternoon, tomorrow and every day I'm going to stop and look up at your hat. I want peace in Altdorf and in all of Switzerland.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Gessler: Willam Tell! You´re a difficult man. And you have your crossbow with you again.
- Walther: My father can hit an apple on a tree from a hundred feet with his crossbow.
- Gessler: Can he? Soldier, bring me an apple.
Soldier 1 takes an apple from the fruit shop and gives it to the Governor. Good! Tell, také your son to that tree across the street and put this apple on his head. Then take your crossbow and walk away. Hit the apple and you and your son can live.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Tell: On my son's head? No father can do that! Kill me now.
- Gessler: No, do it. You and your crossbow are famous. Boy, stand near the tree and wait for your father's arrow.
- Fuerst: Governor, stop! Take my money and my house, but don't kill Tell and Walther.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Walther: I´m going to be OK. (He smiles).
Father can hit this apple. There´s no problem.
- Stauffacher: Tell, wait. Your hand is moving and your eyes are swimming in your head.
Don´t play this man´s games.
- Tell: Governor, kill me, not my son.
- Gessler: I want to watch you with your crossbow. Do it!

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Walther: Father, you can do it. I'm going to be OK.
- Tell looks very unhappy. There is suddenly a lot of noise in the street. People come out of their houses because they want to watch. Tell quietly takes a second arrow from his bag and puts in his shirt. Gessler sees him.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Man: Yes, you can do it, Tell!
- Woman: You´re a hero!
- Man: (to the woman) Tell´s our man!
- Woman: (to the man) We don´t want that hat on the tree!
- Gessler: Tell, hit the apple and go home. Look! Your son is waiting.
- Walther: You can do it, Father.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- People stop moving and are very quiet. Tell walks away. Then he puts an arrow in his crossbow and looks at the apple. The arrow hits the apple. The people in the street are very happy, but Tell cannot move.
- Man: He did it!
- Walther: Look, Father! I'm OK – I'm not dead.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Woman: Every Swiss man, woman and child is going to hear about William Tell.
- Man: He's our hero! Tell can hit an apple – or a soldier.
- Fuerst: Walther, William, let's go to my house. Come with me.
- Gessler: Stop! I want to talk to Tell.
- Tell: Yes, Governor?

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Gessler: Good job, Tell. But where's your second arrow?
- Tell: In my shirt.
- Gessler: Why did you have a second arrow?
- Tell: It was for you – a dead governor for a dead son. But now the arrow can stay in my shirt and I can go home. Goodbye.
- Gessler: An arrow for me? Soldiers, take him to prison! He's not going to walk away from me.

Scene 7 In front of the tree with the hat

- Man: No! Wait! He's a good man.
- Woman: He's a man of peace.
- Man: He's our hero!
- Fuerst: You're a very bad man, Governor Gessler.
- Gessler (to Tell): I'm not going to kill you, Tell, but you're dangerous. I'm going to put you in prison in Kuessnacht. I don't want you and your crossbow on these streets. Soldiers, take him to my boat.
