INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS:

⇒ Students should know the meaning of the following vocabulary and questions:

hero

should

quality(ies), character, characteristic

What's he/she like?

What does he/she like?

What does he/she look like?

⇒ Discuss the following questions with the students:

What does the word HERO mean for you?

Who is hero for you? (Who is your hero?)

What qualities should the heroes have?

Are the firefighters heroes? Why/why not?

⇒ ACTIVITY – MY HERO

Instructions for the students:

Think about your hero (who is hero for you). Take a piece of paper (A4 size) and draw or stick your hero's photo in the middle of the paper. Then describe your hero in three paragraphs:

Paragraph 1 – What does he/she look like?

Paragraph 2 – What is he/she like?

Paragraph 3 – What does he/she like? What does he/she like doing?

Example:

FIREFIGHTER - MY HERO

What does he look like?

He has an orange moustache, big nose, fire-fighter helmet and hood. His arms are long and strong. He isn't fat, but he is muscular.

What is he like?

He is brave and courageous, because he rescue people in dangerous situations.

He isn't selfish.

He is sometimes quiet and moody because he has very difficult job.

What does he like doing?

He likes fire fighting and helping people in an emergency. In his free time, he likes being with his family and relaxing.

He also likes fire sport.

- ⇒ SHARING: 3 students work together: the compare their heroes and write out what their heroes have in common.
- ⇒ Finally, discuss the differences among the students' heroes. The groups tell the rest of the class what their heroes have in common. (The teacher can write it on the board and in the end there is a description of the class'hero on the board 😊).
